PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE REPUBLIC OF MAURITIUS

SEC/ICAC/1 V9

30 September 2019

Dear Sir,

Declaration of Assets (State-Owned Enterprises) (Revocation) Regulations 2019

Following the promulgation of the Declaration of Assets (State-Owned Enterprises) Regulations 2019, this Office has received representations with regard to the implementation of these Regulations.

2. Cabinet has, at its meeting of 19 September 2019, agreed that the submission of declaration forms to the Independent Commission Against Corruption be effected in a phased manner. As such, the submission of the forms by the declarants from state-owned enterprises has been postponed to a later stage.

3. Accordingly, the Declaration of Assets (State-Owned Enterprises) Regulations 2019 has been revoked. A new regulation would be prescribed at a later stage.

4. In this connection, please find enclosed a copy of the Declaration of Assets (State-Owned Enterprises) (Revocation) Regulations 2019 (GN No. 177 of 2019) made by the Hon. Prime Minister under section 13 of the Declaration of Assets Act.

5. This Office will, in due course, issue a circular, requesting all Supervising Officers of Ministries/Departments to inform all State-Owned Enterprises, falling under their purview, of the revocation of the Declaration of Assets (State-Owned Enterprises) Regulations 2019.

Yours faithfully,

K. Ranmondhur-Ruggoo (Mrs)
for Secretary to Cabinet and Head of the Civil Service
